

Advertisement for hiring Consultant in DST Project

Requires consultant having expertise in textile processing especially from wet processing Industry for Department of Science and Technology (DST) Sponsored Project on “Compilation and interpretation of the issues involved in commercialization of indigenous technologies in the Indian textile processing sector” at The Synthetic and Art Silk Mills’ Research Association (SASMIRA), Worli, Mumbai.

Engagement of Consultant: Providing consultancy in project activity, framing technology appropriate questions, interpretation of data collected from the Industry, data analysis, their interpretation and compilation. Any other task related to the project and as specified by the Project Investigators.

Scope of Work:

1. To provide guidance on the available indigenous technologies which couldn't not be commercialized in wet processing sectors
2. Providing input on the list of textile industry related to the identified indigenous technologies and prevailing situation w.r.t wet processing sector
3. Guidance in framing technology appropriate questionnaire through Delphi technique to be distributed to the textile industries and interaction with Wet processors.

Requirement: Experience in Textile Processing preferably from Wet processing sector. Awareness of current textile processing industry scenario

Terms of Engagement: The tenure of engagement would be task based.

Emoluments: Negotiable

Mode of Selection: Applications received in response to advertisement will be scrutinized and shortlisted applicants will be called for a personal interaction and documents verification with original documents. Based on qualification, experiences & outcome of personal interaction, the candidate will be selected.

How to Apply: Candidates desirous of applying for engagement mentioned above may submit their application to the Senior Director, SASMIRA, Sasmira Marg, Worli, Mumbai-400030. The application can also be sent by email at ed@sasmira.org / project@sasmira.org on or before 15th September, 2023 till 5:30 P.M.