- (e) Honorary Members, being persons whether entitled or not to become Members under the above provisions and nominated for membership by the Council for special services or for special cause, and elected at a General Meeting.

No Member, other than an Ordinary Member or the representative of an Ordinary Member shall be entitled to vote at General Meetings, Members other than Ordinary Member shall be entitled to such of the privileges and benefits of the Association as the Council may from time to time determine, but without power to vote at any General Meeting.

As amended on 18th February 2010. Provided always that an Ordinary Member must be Indian, permanently residing in the Union of India or a body corporate established under and subject to the laws of this country having their principal place of business in the Union of India provided also that any Member ceasing to fulfil the requisite conditions of membership shall ipso facto cease to be at Member.

6. The following provisions shall have effect with respect to the Association, and in case of any conflict between the provisions of this Rule and those of any other Rule the provisions of this Rule shall prevail:

A. Every application for membership of the Association shall be accompanied by :-

- As amended on 18th February 2010.
- (1) In the case of an application made by an individual a declaration by the applicant stating whether he is or is not a permanently residing in the Union of India, and whether he has or has not ever taken an oath of allegiance or otherwise become a citizen or subject of any, and if so what, enemy or foreign sovereign or State; and, if Indian, whether he is a natural-born Indian, or Indian by naturalisation or otherwise, and if, naturalised, whether he remains for any purpose in the allegiance of any, and if so, what enemy or foreign sovereign or State.
 - (2) In the case of an application made by a corporation, a declaration made on behalf of the corporation by the secretary or other officer authorised in that behalf stating whether the corporation is an enemy or foreign corporation or a corporation under foreign control.

And in either case the Council may, before electing any Member, require such further evidence as it shall in its absolute discretion think necessary in support of any such declaration.

B. In the event of its being proved to the satisfaction of the Council that the declaration to be made under clause A is untrue the Council shall by resolution (which shall be final and conclusive and not subject to question by any person on any ground whatsoever) exclude such Member from membership, and upon such resolution being passed such Member shall cease to have any interest in the Association and shall have no claim against the Association or the council or any of its Members in respect thereof.

C. The Council shall not without the consent of the Department elect to membership any foreigner or foreign corporation or corporation under foreign control, or any other Company which under the provisions of these articles is not qualified to be elected as a Member of the Association.

As amended on 18th February 2010. D. If at any time a Member shall cease to be an Indian or shall come in any way directly or indirectly under the control or directions of, or become in the opinion of the Department subject to the influence of any foreign State, body, person or corporation, or corporation under foreign control, the Council may at any time and shall at the request of the Department serve on the Member in question a notice in writing requiring such Member to retire from the association, and upon such notice being given, such Member shall ipso facto cease to be a Member of the Association, and shall not be eligible for re-election as a member.

As amended on 18th February 2010. E. In the event of any Member ceasing to be Indian or coming in any way directly or indirectly under the control or directions of any foreign State, body, person or corporation under foreign control, he shall within thirty days disclose the fact to the Council and failure to make such a disclosure within such period shall render the Member liable to exclusion in the manner provided by Clause B hereof. Provided that no such right of exclusion under this Rule shall be exercised by the Council without the consent of the Department.

As amended on 18th February 2010. F. No person other than Indian permanently residing in the Union of India shall be qualified to be a member of the Council, and the office of a Member of the Council shall be vacated :-

(a) If he ceases to be an Indian, or ceases to reside in the Union of India

(b) If he be called upon in writing by at least three-fourths of all the other Members of the Council for the time being to resign office on the ground that he is, in their opinion subject to the influence of a foreign State, body, person, or corporation, or a corporation under foreign control, and for that reason is not a desirable person to be a Member of the Council, and so that the opinions of three-fourths majority of the other Members of the Council so expressed shall not be subject to question by any person or corporation on any ground whatsoever.

G. In these provisions:-

As amended on 18th February 2010. The expression "foreigner" means every person who is not Indian permanently residing in the Union of India.

7. (a) Every member shall nominate one person (herein referred to as "the Principal Representative") to act as its representative and another person (herein referred to as "the Alternate Representative") to act as its Alternate Representative, subject however to the prior approval of the Council; Provided Always that the Council shall not without the consent of the Department approve the nomination of a Principal Representative or of an Alternate Representative who is not an Indian subject; Provided Further that the Alternate Representative of any Member shall not represent more than one member of the Association. For the purpose of such approval or consent, the nominating member shall give all information that may be reasonably required by the Council or by the Department
- As amended on
19th May 1972
- (b) The Principal Representative and the Alternate Representative when so approved shall have the right on behalf of the member (and to the extent only to which the member would in person be entitled to do so) to attend the meetings of the Association and to vote thereat and generally to exercise all rights of membership on behalf of the Member, Provided Always that when the Principal Representative is present at the meeting, the Alternate Representative shall not be entitled to represent the Member thereat or to exercise any rights of membership
 - (c) A member may from time to time revoke the nomination of the Principal Representative and/or of the Alternate Representative and (subject to the previous consent of the Council and the Department if necessary as aforesaid) nominate another representative in place and stead of the Representative whose nomination is sought to be revoked. All nominations and revocations shall be in writing,
 - (d) The Council may in its absolute discretion withdraw at any time its approval to the nomination of a Principal Representative or an Alternate Representative made by any member and intimation of such withdrawal shall be given to the member concerned, whereupon the member concerned shall nominate another person to be its Principal Representative or an Alternate Representative, as the case may be: Provided Always that any Director or Secretary or a member who is a partner in any firm or the proprietor member who shall have nominated a representative as heretofore provided may attend any meeting of the Association without any right of voting thereat but the members present at any meeting may exclude persons who are not members from such meeting by a resolution passed by a majority of members present and who are entitled to vote, and no special notice shall be required before the consideration of such resolution.

8. No person or corporation shall be admitted to Membership of the Association unless an application for membership shall have been signed by him or it or on his or its behalf setting out the particulars required by Rule 6.
9. Subject and without prejudice to Rule 6 the Council shall in all cases have absolute discretion in deciding whether any person or corporation shall not be admitted to membership of the Association.
10. Any ordinary Member may withdraw from the Association by giving notice in writing duly signed to the Secretary at least six calendar months before the expiration of any financial year, and on paying with such notice any unpaid subscription for the current year, and also for each and any subsequent year which such Member shall have guaranteed to subscribe on election, and thereupon such Member shall be deemed to have ceased to be a Member from the date of the expiration of such financial year. In default of such notice being so given, an ordinary Member shall be liable to pay the subscription for the ensuing year and in cases where any undertaking or guarantee has been given for subscription or donations for any given number of years the Member shall continue to be liable thereunder.
11. Any Member other than an ordinary Member may withdraw from the Association by giving notice in writing to the Secretary at any time and paying with such notice any unpaid subscriptions that may be due, and also subscriptions for subsequent years and donations agreed upon or guaranteed by such Member on election (if any) and thereupon shall cease to be a Member.
12. Upon the retirement of any Member by notice as stated in Rules 10 and 11, the Member shall not be entitled under any conditions to any repayment of any subscription or any part thereof whether paid for the current year or for a year or years in advance.
13. Any member may be suspended as a member of the Association by a Resolution of the Council passed by a majority of at least $\frac{3}{4}$ ths of the members present and voting at a special Council meeting, of which not less than 21 days previous notice specifying the intention to propose such resolution shall have been sent to the member whose suspension is in question and to all the members of the Council Notice of the general nature of the grounds on which such resolution is proposed shall be sent to the member whose suspension is in question at least 14 days before the meeting and he shall be entitled to be heard by the Council at the meeting. If the Council shall be desirous of expelling or removing a member who has been suspended as aforesaid from the Association, they shall convene an extraordinary general meeting of the Association by giving not less than 21 days previous notice specifying the intention, to propose such resolution, a copy of which shall also be sent to the member whose removal is in question and to all the members of the Association in the manner hereinafter prescribed for giving notices, and such a member shall be removed from the Association, if such a resolution for removal is passed by a majority of at least $\frac{3}{4}$ of the members present Notice of a general nature of the grounds on which such removal is proposed shall be sent to the member whose removal is in question at least 14 days before a meeting and he shall be entitled to be heard by the members at the meeting On a member being removed, the Council shall not return a due proportion of such member's current subscription having regard to the unexpired period for which it is paid PROVIDED that in case of a member, who has been appointed by the Department to be a member of the Council, the Council shall not take action under this Article without previous consultation with the Department.
